Your Itinerary in Detail

Florida is laidback and happening at the same time. A bohemian, chill vibe pervades the entire state, interrupted only by the excitement of Disney World, opulence of Key West and relentless partying of Miami. Florida has something for everyone, no matter your age or interests. Gear up for a healthy dose of adrenaline, culture, culinary excellence, late night partying and perfectly balmy weather.

Day 1 Arrive Orlando

- Hotel Quality Inn & Suites Eastgate Kissimmee Or Similar
- Arrive at the airport in Orlando, head to the car rental agency to pick up your rental car and drive to your hotel.

Day 6 Miami

Hotel Pullman Miami Airport Hotel Or Similar

Explore Miami by way of a hop-on-hop-off bus tour.

Start your day off with a hop-on-hop-off bus tour of Miami, choosing from 2 different loops. The Beach Loop will take you from the Central Station along the scenic Macarthur Causeway all the way around the Island of Miami Beach. Our recommendations include Washington Avenue, Collins Avenue, Ocean Drive, Perez Art Museum, Biscayne Bay, Miami Seaquarium, Jungle Island, Freedom Tower, Holocaust Museum and Fontainebleau Hotel. The City Loop departs from Central Station and takes you to see most of the interesting districts and attractions of mainland Miami like Coconut Grove, Coral Gables, Little Havana, downtown Miami, Bayside Marketplace, Bayfront Park, Millionaires' Row, Venetian Pool, the Biltmore Hotel, Freedom Tower, the County Courthouse, Vizcaya Museum and Lowe Art Musuem. Note: Transfers from the hotel to the hop-on-hop-off point are at your own cost.

Drive from your hotel in Key West to your hotel in Fort Myers.

Drive to Fort Myers via route US-1 S till you reach Weston. En route, you may halt at the Dolphin Research Center at Grassy Key, a dolphinarium where visitors can see shows and interact with dolphins as well as sea lions. Later head to Key Largo, where you can meet the most famous resident of the Pennekamp Coral Reef State Park, 'Christ of the Abyss', a 8 ½-foot-tall statue of Jesus Christ that sits in nearly 25 feet of water; this a popular site for scuba divers and snorkelers. From here, you can head to Sawgrass Recreation Park, which offer airboat tours through gator habitats and a small zoo with a variety of reptiles. From Weston, take the I-75 N to Fort Myers; en route, we recommend you to halt at Immokalee for the Florida Panther National Wildlife, more than 24,000 acres full of panthers and other wildlife, with interpretive tours and hiking trails. Next on the route, you can stop at the Naples Botanical Garden and the Delnor-Wiggins Pass State Park, known for its serene beach and activities and a Museum of Art which houses a diverse collection including American modernism, 20th-century Mexican art, sculpture and 3-dimensional art.
