The American West is the land of eternal sunshine, the one part of the USA where the sun is always shining. The West Coast is home to Hollywood, glittering Las Vegas, the gorgeous Yosemite National Park, one of the most beautiful coastal driving roads in the world and some globally-acclaimed vineyards - you can see why it's easy to fall in love with. Ready yourself for days of balmy weather, pristine beaches, lip-smacking cuisine and relentless partying. This is California after all!

Slightly up the road, you will spot the Pacifica State Beach, one of the most popular surfing beaches for beginners. Foodies need to check out Nick's Seafood Restaurant in Pacifica: they offer brilliant crab sandwiches and are generally known for their seafood. Next en route is the Montara State Beach, one of the cleanest beaches in the state renowned for surfing and fishing. If you're hungry, stop by La Costanera: a Peruvian restaurant with glass walls overlooking the water. Driving ahead to Pescadero, you will pass one of the tallest lighthouses on the West Coast of United States, the Pigeon Point Lighthouse, built in 1871. Next, at Davenport, you can halt at the massive rock that stands guard over a small cove full of geologic wonders. Just down the coast from here is Santa Cruz, where you can head to Ferrell's Donuts for some seriously good donuts! You will finally arrive in Monterey and may opt to visit the Monterey Bay Aquarium - it displays 35,000 animals belonging to over 550 species - and the Cannery Row, a waterfront street with several restaurants, hotels and few historic attractions.
