Your Itinerary in Detail

Welcome to Gujarat, the land of Dandiya, Dhokla and Bandhani sarees. It's where Gandhiji's Satyagraha movement came to life, it's home to one of the largest salt flats on the planet, and also the only place where you will run into the majestic wild ass. Here's a glimpse of your trip to this magnificent state!

Enjoy a city tour of Ahmedabad.

Kick off your morning in a chauffeur driven car with a visit to the peaceful Sabarmati Ashram, the place that the Father of the Nation called home. Next on your list of sites is the Adalaj Stepwell. Constructed in the 15th century, this five-storeyed well is a brilliant example of the architectural prowess of its times. From here, head to Gandhinagar to visit the famous Akshardham Temple. This sprawling, 23-acre temple complex is dedicated to Hindu yogi and ascetic, Bhagwan Swaminarayan. Automotive enthusiasts will surely enjoy the next stop: the Auto World Vintage Motorcycle Museum. Classic motorcycle collector Pranal Bhogilal's garage is where you will find close to 200, exquisite vintage models. It will be evening by the time you are back in Ahmedabad, the best time to visit the Sidi Sayyed Mosque; it looks stunning when lit up in the evening. The 16th century mosque is known for its intricately carved sandstone jaali or latticework on its windows.

Day 3 Ahmedabad - Bhuj

 Ride from the hotel in Ahmedabad to the hotel in Bhuj.

Today, pick up your motorcycle from the hotel and ride west on NH 947 towards Bhuj. Around 90 km outside Ahmedabad, we recommend that you take a right turn towards Bajana Village. This road leads to the Little Rann of Kutch, the only place in the world where you will find the majestic wild ass. We suggest that you visit the Wild Ass Sanctuary for a safari before heading to Bhuj.

Day 4 Bhuj

 Hotel Hotel Prince Residency Or Similar

 Enjoy the local sightseeing of Bhuj.

Your first day of local sightseeing includes visits to the Aina Mahal, Prag Mahal, the Mandvi Beach and the Vijaya Vilas Palace on your motorcycle. Head first to the Prag Mahal, a 19th century palace that featured in the Oscar-nominated movie Lagaan. It's popular for its clock-tower, from where you can see all of Bhuj. The Aina Mahal (Palace of Mirrors) is located in the same compound as the Prag Mahal and is known for its marble-intensive build and ornate mirrors adorning its walls. It also has a collection of coins, seals and artefacts of the Bhuj province from the pre-Independence era. Time to head south to Mandvi, where you should first visit the Vijaya Vilas Palace. It was the former summer home of the Jadeja Rajas of Kutch. After a quick lunch, on your way back, visit the Mandvi Beach. Brilliant views aside, camel rides, jet-skiing and ATV rides are quite popular here.

 Ride from the hotel in Bhuj to the tent in Dhordo.
Check out of your hotel and ride north of Bhuj on the NH 341 towards Dhordo. About 60 kilometres out on this butter-smooth and seemingly never ending stretch, you will reach the White Rann Permit Office. Collect the permit for your vehicle and your mates - required for entry into the White Rann and Kalo Dungar and proceed to Dhordo which is another 30 kilometres from here. Check in to your room and head out to enjoy the festivities at the Rann Fest and the White Rann salt flats.

 Enjoy the vibrant Rann of Kutch
Take a quick break and step out to enjoy festivities at Gujarat's famous Festival and later, walk to the serene, endless salt flats of the Rann of Kutch.

Day 7 Dhordo - Dholavira

Hotel Rann Resort Or Similar

Ride from the tent in Dhordo to the hotel in Dholavira.

After a quick breakfast, depart early from Dhordo, trace your way back to Bhuj and ride to Dholavira. Follow the State Highway (SH) 42 till Bhachau. The stretch from Bhachau to Ravi Moti isn't as smooth as the Gujarat roads that you are used to and has quite a lot of broken sections. However, Rav Moti onwards, you ride on the SH 51, a superb stretch of tarmac which lasts all the way to Dholavira.

Explore the ancient ruins of Dholavira.

Later, you will be escorted (with a guide) to the excavated site of the 5000-year-old Harappan metropolis. It was a flourishing trade hub in Asia, and one of the most advanced cities of its time. From the excavation site, you will be taken to what is going to be the most spectacular sight of your trip a sunset by the Rann of Kutch.
